FLOOR DEBATE

January 29, 2002 LB 95, 157A, 435, 482, 1240, 1257

that a purchase would occur under the Uniform Commercial Code, so why not refer to the Uniform Commercial Code? Senator Bromm was wanting to be very tight in the drafting, as he pointed out, in opposition to the amendment that I withdrew. Well, the language in the committee amendment is very vague, very loose. Senator Schimek, wherever she is...no, I'm not asking a question, I'm just going to make a comment about the reservation; I agree with Senator Schimek that when a person is in contact with one of these businesses they come to an understanding of what it takes to make a reservation. What I could not make Senator Bromm understand is that there is not any general definition of "reservation" that every business has to comply with. Each business may have its own standard as to how...

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...the reservation is to be made. Maybe if I call United Airline the call is enough to make me a reservation. Maybe another one will say your reservation is not confirmed until you come here and you put some money down. So the point I'm getting at is this, there are terms in this amendment which are more vague than what Senator Schimek...Senator Bromm said was the case with the amendment that I had offered using language from the green copy. This is not a well drawn amendment. The bill is a bad bill. It is bad in general, it is bad in detail. It is asking us to adopt a public policy to loosen the liquor laws and to allow more liquor to be consumed on the highways, public parking areas, and I'm going to ask Senator Bromm what those mean, and any other place where this is to be allowed. Under the green copy...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time, Senator. Thank you, Senator Chambers. Mr. Clerk, items for the record.

ASSISTANT CLERK: Thank you, Mr. President. I have an Attorney General's Opinion on LB 1257 that's addressed to Senator Dierks. Amendments to be printed to LB 435 from Senator Dierks; LB 482 from Senator Hartnett; LB 157A from Senator Cudaback; LB 1240 from Senator Hartnett. Notice of committee hearings as offered by the Natural Resources Committee. Your committee on
